

ALFAMAX 415

- ☐ Selected for high forage quality
- ☐ Bred for increased digestibility
- ☐ Very winterhardy = 1.5
- ☐ Impressive cutting recovery
- ☐ Improved traffic tolerance
- ☐ 30/30 disease rating index

| AGRONOMIC TRAITS | | RESISTANCE TRAITS | |
|---------------------|------------------|--------------------------------|-----------|
| Fall Dormancy: | 4.0 | Bacterial Wilt: | HR |
| Winter Survival: | 1.5 | Fusarium Wilt: | HR |
| Area of Adaptation: | West | Phytophthora Root Rot: | HR |
| Forage Yield: | Excellent | Anthracnose (Race 1): | HR |
| Forage Quality: | High | Aphanomyces Root Rot (Race 1): | HR |
| Cutting Recovery: | Very Fast | Verticillium Wilt: | HR |
| DRI: | 30/30 | Northern root-knot Nematode: | HR |
| Traffic Tolerance: | Very Good | Pea Aphid: | MR |
| Standability: | Very Good | Spotted Alfalfa Aphid: | MR |

Alfamax 415 is a high tonnage, fall dormancy 4 variety with superb tolerance to heavy traffic from today's large equipment. It is a medium tall, leafy variety that reaches harvest maturity 3-5 days ahead of conventional dormant alfalfa varieties. A multifoliolate, Alfamax 415 delivers high forage quality resulting in maximum milk and meat production.

PO Box 100, Manilla, IA 51454
888-788-ALLY